We offered $255 for the privilege of being the official paper, which is all the position is worth—agreeing to do all the wark for nothing, with a faint hope that our superior circulation might balance our distanteful politics; but as our contemporaries in their nip and tuck rivalship with each other, outbid us two one, we didn't a stand the shadow of a chance, if we ever had one. The announcement of the vace was received by the outsiders, who tot callected in considerable numbers, with unniest applause.

South Water street begins to present an ective appearance. Vassels of all kinds are preparing to leave the port. There is every prospect that the commerce off the city during the present acason will greatly surpass that of every former one. Naw warehouses are being built, and old once colarged.
